Frequently asked questions

Q: Where can I find a list of covered drugs?

A: An up-to-date, searchable list is available on our website, Geisinger.org/NorthernLightHealth. Click the “Covered Drugs” search link.

Q: What is the free drug list?

A: This is a list of medications for chronic diseases, such as hypertension, diabetes and cholesterol, that do not have a copay. To find the list, visit Geisinger.org/NorthernLightHealth and click the “Covered Drugs” search link; a link to the $0 copay drug list is at the top of this page.

Q: Where can I find a list of participating pharmacies?

A: An up-to-date, searchable list is available on our website. Geisinger.org/NorthernLightHealth and click the “Pharmacy Search” link.

Q: Is prior authorization required and how does it work?

A: To ensure all medications are used appropriately, select drugs may require prior authorization. In order for a member to receive prior authorization, the prescribing physician must obtain prior authorization by completing and submitting a request form or medical documentation.

Q: Where can I find the list of drugs that require prior authorization?

A: You can use the formulary search at Geisinger.org/NorthernLightHealth to find drugs that require prior authorization. You may also call our customer care team at 800-988-4861 \(TTY 711\).

Q: How does the mail order pharmacy program work?

A: Your mail order benefit is through Northern Light Pharmacy. You can find more information at northernlighthealth.org/Locations/Northern-Light-Pharmacy.
